

[Wilson, Ezekiel]

DEATH OF DEA. EZEKIEL WILSON

This worthy citizen, long known to the people of this vicinity, passed quietly away last Saturday morning. His long and severe illness from partial paralysis, gave him ample time to make every preparation, so that he could feel that his work was all done, and everything was ready for his going. Patiently he bore all his sufferings, faithfully did he do everything he could for his family, devoutly and in sincere Christian faith did he commit his spiritual interest to his Savior's hands, peacefully in the bosom of his family he passed away. His funeral was attended at his late residence Sunday P.M. His pastor, Rev. Dr. Weaver of the Universalist church, conducted the religious services, assisted by Rev. Dr. Gaines. His body was taken to the cemetery and buried by the Masonic Fraternity. So has gone a most worthy man, and a sincere Christian. He leaves a wife and two sons to mourn their too early loss, and a whole community to sympathize with them in their sorrow. His age was fifty-two.

St. Lawrence Plaindealer, Canton NY, Wed. 22 Oct 1879

Transcribed on 3 Jan 2011 by Karen E. Dau of Rochester, NY