

[Winship, Anna Bahr]

ANNA WINSHIP

Mrs. Anna Winship passed away at the Emogene Bassett hospital in Cooperstown, Saturday night. She had been at Cooperstown for the past three weeks and death was due to pernicious anemia. She was born February 11, 1902, in Germany, and came to this village as a little girl. Her parents were the late Karl and Bertha Grouse Bahr. She was formerly employed by the Eastern Footwear Co., until about the first of the year, when she became ill. She is survived by one son, Theodore, of this village, and one brother, Walter Bahr, also of this village; two sisters, Mrs. Max Menz of Chicago and Mrs. Card of Ilion.

The funeral was held privately from the home on 15 Spencer street yesterday afternoon and the Rev. C. [Clinton] A. Moulton of the Universalist church officiated. Burial was made in the Dolgeville cemetery.
