

[Wiswell, James Hayward]

JAMES WISWELL

CLYDE, Oct. 30—James Hayward Wiswell, 54, died suddenly at his home, 20 Burton Street, Clyde, this evening, (Oct. 30, 1956). He was born in Little Falls, Sept. 2, 1902, the son of James and Dorleska Wiswell.

Prior to moving to Clyde 10 years ago he had been a resident of Watertown for 44 years, where he was known as an accomplished violinist playing with the Watertown Civic Orchestra. He was employed as a pressman at the Vanderbrook Printing Co. in Newark, N.Y., and had worked the day before his death.

Surviving are his wife, Dorothy Hartnagle Wiswell; two daughters, Dorothy Ann and Nancy Elizabeth, both at home; one sister, Mrs. Harold Sacrider of Rochester; a stepmother, Mrs. Mary Wiswell of Rochester; several cousins.

Funeral services will be held at 2 p.m. Friday at the home, the Rev. Ellsworth Reamon, pastor of the Universalist Church of Syracuse, officiating. Burial will be in the East Newark Cemetery.

Friends may call at the home Wednesday and Thursday afternoon and evening.

Democrat and Chronicle, Rochester NY, Wed. 31 Oct 1956

Transcribed on 31 Dec 2015 by Karen E. Dau of Rochester, NY