

[Wood, Ann Elizabeth Avery]

DEATH OF MRS. G. S. WOOD

After an illness extending over a period of 25 years, during which time she has been a constant but patient sufferer, Ann Elizabeth Wood, wife of Sheriff George S. Wood, died at the sheriff's residence at 1:35 o'clock this afternoon in the 53d year of her age. During the past two weeks she has failed steadily and the end was not unexpected. Besides her husband she is survived by one daughter, Mrs. George M. Hull, of this city, two sons, Frank Wood and Fred Wood, both of Venice, and one sister, Mrs. Lottie Green, of Moravia, who will have the sympathy of the community in their bereavement.

The funeral will be held at the house Monday morning at 11 o'clock. Burial will be at the East Venice cemetery.

Auburn Bulletin, Auburn NY, Fri. 1 Feb 1901

The Village Notes.

—The funeral services over the remains of the late Ann Elizabeth Wood, wife of Sheriff George S. Wood, were held at the family residence in Court street, Auburn, at 11 o'clock Monday morning. Rev. O. M. Hilton, pastor of the Universalist church, officiated. The house was crowded with relatives and friends, among them many county and city officials. There were floral tributes in profusion. The remains were taken to East Venice for interment. The bearers were Fred Wood and Frank Wood, two sons, and George M. Hull and R. B. Mosher, sons-in-law.

Genoa Tribune, Genoa NY, Fri. 8 Feb 1901