

[Wood, Frank C.]

Frank C. Wood

The death of Frank C. Wood occurred Tuesday morning, June 15th, at the home of his son, L. D. Wood, of Fly Creek, as the result of a shock [stroke] sustained some time ago. Mr. Wood was born December 23, 1853, and his life was for the most part spent in Springfield Centre. Surviving besides the son mentioned is another son, B. [Bert] P. Wood of Springfield Centre, and three grandchildren. The funeral will be held from his late home on Friday afternoon at 2 o'clock (old time), the Rev. Charles Kramer [Universalist] of Cooperstown officiating. Interment will be made in Lakewood Cemetery, Cooperstown, the Evergreen Lodge No. 363, F. & A. M., of Springfield Centre, of which Mr. Wood was a member, having charge of the committal services. Mr. Wood was also affiliated with Otsego Chapter, No. 26, R.A.M. of Cooperstown, and Flycreek Grange No. 844.

Springfield Center

The news of the death of Frank C. Wood, who died at Fly Creek last Tuesday, was received with regret in this village. He was born in December 1853 and spent his childhood in this village, where he attended the district school and Thompson's High School; also the Sunday school at the Universalist church when the late Rev. [Samuel R.] Ward preached here. He spent most of his life here. He was a kindly man, a good man and a good citizen. He belonged to the Evergreen Lodge F. & A.M. for many years and held the office of treasurer for some time. He is survived by two sons, Bert P. Wood of this village and Loomis Wood of Fly Creek. Also three grandchildren. His wife [M. Adele Hoke Wood] died here several years ago [in 1901]. The funeral was held at the home of the son Loomis Wood at Fly Creek, on Friday at 2 p.m., the Rev. Charles Kramer of the Universalist Church at Cooperstown officiating. Burial was in the family plot in Lakewood cemetery, Cooperstown. Evergreen Lodge F. & A.M. attended the funeral in a body and had charge of the burial services at Lokewood cemetery. Mr. Wood also belonged to Otsego Chapter, No. 26, R.A.M. Cooperstown and the Fly Creek Grange No. 844. His parents, the late Mrs. and Mrs. Adelbert Wood, were long time residents of this village, and their families were among our early residents.
