

[Wood, Harrison D.]

Bristol

The funeral of Harrison D. Wood, whose death occurred at an early hour on Monday morning, was held from his late home on Wednesday at 11 o'clock, Rev. James L. Wolback, pastor of the Universalist church, officiating. The interment was made in Evergreen cemetery. Mr. Wood had been ill for some time, death resulting from a complication of diseases. He was born in Michigan 61 years ago, and came to this town when a young man, where he was united in marriage to Mrs. Elizabeth Dunham Phillips. He soon engaged in farming, becoming one of the most successful hop growers in this section. He was a Democrat in politics and always took a great interest in his party's affairs. He leaves his wife, a step-son, Morris Phillips, and a step-grandson, Leo Phillips, both of Pittsford, and his mother, Mrs. Wood, of Michigan.

Naples Record, Naples NY, Wed. 3 Dec 1913

Transcribed on 31 Jul 2019 by Karen E. Dau of East Rochester, NY