

[Woodard, Mason]

Death of Mason Woodard

Central Square, Aug. 16.—Mason Woodard, 30, died at his home in Main street Tuesday afternoon. Three years ago Mr. Woodard with stricken with tuberculosis which was the cause of death.

Mr. Woodard was born in the town of Hastings and spent his entire life here and in this section. He was a member of Central Square lodge I.O.O.F. and of the local grange.

Besides his widow, Mr. Woodard is survived by his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Asa Woodard; five sisters, Mrs. Ward Barrett, Mrs. John Haskin, Miss Setcha Woodward, Miss Mamie Woodard of this place, Miss Gertrude Woodard of Syracuse; two brothers, Fred and Delos Woodard of Syracuse.

Funeral at the Universalist church at two o'clock Friday afternoon, Rev. Clarence J. Cowing officiating. Burial will be made in Hillside cemetery.

Oswego Daily Times, Oswego NY, Fri. 17 Aug 1917

Transcribed on 16 Dec 2012 by Karen E. Dau of Rochester, NY