

[Woodcock, Adeline McCannon]

Mrs. Adeline M. Woodcock

The village of Central Square suffered a loss in the death of Mrs. Adeline McCannon Woodcock on January 23. She was in her 72nd year and even though her diabetic condition in recent years had affected her strength, yet she used what she possessed always to endear herself to the friends in the church and community. She and her husband, Lewis B. Woodcock, were expert florists and she generously shared these expressions of beauty and other remembrances with her neighbors. She was a loyal and devoted member of the Universalist church, serving in the church school, as clerk of the parish, in music and in the activities of the Women's Society. The Rev. William J. Metz conducted the funeral service on Monday evening, January 26.
