

[Wooden, Emma Tullar]

Emma Tullar Wooden

A gallant soul has gone home! For years she was one of the most active members of our church. As teacher of the Wooden Class, now the Wooden-Grose Class, she gave generously of her time and keen mind. Even when ill health laid its heavy burden of pain and suffering on her, she kept undiminished her interest in our church. At the service in her memory on Saturday, May 6th, men and women from every walk and station of life gathered to pay honor to one who had been their teacher and friend in the public schools of our city. To those of us who were permitted to know her, Miss Wooden will always be an inspiration, for her heroic courage, unfaltering faith and indomitable spirit have demonstrated that one can rise above physical handicaps to achieve a glorious victory of the soul. She has fought the good fight, she has kept the faith, she has finished her earthly course. It is good to think of her as going on to fresh triumphs in the home "over there."

Our Outlook, First Universalist Church, Rochester NY, Fri. 12 May 1933

Transcribed on 2 Sep 2012 by Karen E. Dau of Rochester, NY