

[Woolver, Carlton M.]

CARLTON M. WOOLVER

The death of Carlton M. Woolver, former resident of Richfield Springs, occurred at the home of his niece, Miss Edith Hall, in the town of Canajoharie on Jun 14th at the age of 88 years.

The funeral was held at his former home in West Main Street in this village at two o'clock Tuesday afternoon, the Reverend C. Moulton, pastor of the Dolgeville Universalist Church, officiating. Interment was made in Lakeview Cemetery [in Richfield Springs].

Mr. Woolver was a native of the town of Manheim, Herkimer County. His parents were Peter and Electa Louise Hopson Woolver. He was twice married, his first wife, Viola Klock of Mohawk, passing away in 1922. His second wife, Ida C. Keller of the town of Minden, passed away in 1936. Since the latter's death Mr. Woolver had lived with his niece.

Mr. Woolver established and for many years successfully conducted the chicken farm and hatchery now operated by S. E. Vaughn.

His is survived by a son, Ernest Woolver, of Ilion.
