MRS. C. M. WOOLVER EXPIRES AT SPRINGS

Richfield Springs—Mrs. Carlton M. Woolver, 50, died yesterday morning, Oct. 16, 1936, in her home, Main Street, following a year's illness.

She was born in the town of Minden December 30, 1855, daughter of John and Perninah Shaffer Keller. She attended Minden schools and was graduated of Clinton Liberal Arts Institute, Fort Plain, later teaching in the district schools of Minden. She was a member of the Universalist church, Minden, and was active in church affairs. Since coming to this village, she attended Schuyler Lake Universalist Church.

[On] November 14, 1923, she was married to Mr. Woolver. Mrs. Woolver was also a member of Arbutus Chapter, OES. Besides her husband, she is survived by two cousins.

The funeral will be held Monday afternoon at her home with an Eastern Star service.
