

[Woolworth, Herbert Grant]

Herbert G. Woolworth

Herbert Grant Woolworth, 63, died at his home at Mount Clemons, Mich., at 10 o'clock Monday morning after a brief illness of angina pectoris. Mr. Woolworth was born at Carthage, but later lived in New York and at one time was in business in Syracuse. For the past 8 years he had been a retired resident of Mount Clemons. He was a relative of the late F. W. [Frank Winfield] Woolworth, chain store magnate.

Mr. Woolworth was a member of Syracuse Masonic lodge, No. 305.

He is survived by his [second] wife, who was formerly Miss Nettie Walrath of Fort Plain, daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Alphonzo [and Mary E. Farley] Walrath; three sisters, Mrs. George Bates of Canton, Ohio; Mrs. Walter Garthe, Ann Arbor, Mich.; Mrs. F. J. Kerma, Braintree, Mass.

The body arrived in Fort Plain yesterday and was taken to the home of Mr. and Mrs. Alton A. Walrath on Lydius street, where the funeral services were conducted yesterday afternoon at 2 o'clock, Rev. Rufus H. Dix, pastor of the Universalist church of this village, officiating. Interment in the Fort Plain cemetery.
