

[Worden, William D.]

WILLIAM D. WORDEN

William D. Worden, of 34 Mason Street, is dead [at age 65]. Death came almost without warning last Friday, taking this good neighbor and friend and constant attendant at the side of his invalid wife, from duties that, by his kind, patient spirit, were transformed into privileges. Services were held at the home Monday morning, the Minister [Rev. William Wallace Rose] officiating. Masonic services were conducted at the grave in Mount Hope. The tragedy of this situation would be too deep for words if it were not for the memory of the brave spirit that has gone, and the wonderful courage and faith of his wife, Lillian, in this loss of her life companion and helper. We commend her to the prayers and sympathy of our people and urge all who know and love her to visit her in her affliction.
