

[Wright, Adella Lane]

Mrs. Edwin L. Wright

Mrs. Adella L. Wright, wife of Edwin L. Wright, passed away at her home at the Wright Hotel Thursday evening, June 18, 1931, following a lingering illness.

She is survived by her husband; one son, Joseph L. Wright; two granddaughters, Mrs. Donald Wakefield and Miss Dorcas Smith, both of Albion; one grandson, William Wright of Holley and one great-grandson, Maurice Warren Wakefield of Albion. She also leaves three brothers, Horace Lane of Fairport, John Lane of Macedon and Peter Lane of Penfield.

Funeral services were held from the home Sunday afternoon, Rev. A. Ernest Francis officiating, and interment was made in the Ontario cemetery at Ontario, New York.

She was born in Ontario, July 21, 1852, and came to Holley to reside in 1904. She was a member of the Universalist church, in which she was keenly interested. She was also a member of Sprague Chapter, O.E.S., and a regular attendant as long as her health permitted.

Her warm hearted and generous nature won for her the friendship of all with whom she came in contact and she will be sincerely mourned not only in her immediate circle, but throughout the community.
