

[Wright, Lottie French]

NEWPORT

—Word has been received of the death in Lancaster, N.H., on Thursday morning, September 11th, of Mrs. Lottie Wright, death being due to heart failure, following bronchitis. Mrs. Wright, who had lived in Newport for many years, having removed to New Hampshire but recently, was the widow of Jefferson Wright, who died several years ago. She was born in New England about eighty-six years ago, and spent her early life there. Mrs. Wright was a faithful Universalist. She was a woman of social nature who will be greatly missed. She is survived by one daughter, Mrs. Milo Morey, two grandsons, David and Donald Morley, and two sisters, Mrs. Helen Brown and Miss Florence French, both of Lancaster, N.H. The funeral was held at her home there Saturday.
