

[Yagel, Helen S. Burnside]

DEATHS

YAGEL—Mrs. Helen S. Yagel, formerly of 176 Main St., Oneonta, widow of George Yagel, died Sunday at the Clark Nursing Home, Country Club Road, Oneonta, after a long illness. She was born in Milford, N.Y., the daughter of Charles and Elizabeth (Gunn) Burnside. She was a lifelong resident of the Oneonta area. She attended the Universalist Church in Oneonta and was a member of the Order of the Eastern Star in Sidney. She is survived by a daughter, Mrs. Ruth Whitmore, Apalachin; a niece, Mrs. Helen Miller, Oneonta; a nephew, George Yagel, California; a cousin, Mrs. Robert S. Wight, Pompano Beach, Fla. Funeral services will be held Wednesday at 2 p.m. at the Lewis Funeral Home, 51 Dietz St., Oneonta. The Rev. John Edwin Price will officiate. Burial will be in Riverside Cemetery, Oneonta. Friends may call at the funeral home at their convenience until time of service.

Binghamton Press, Binghamton NY, Tue. 11 Sep 1962

Transcribed on 18 Dec 2012 by Karen E. Dau of Rochester, NY