

[Yantis, Essie Earll]

ESSIE EARLL YANTIS PASSES AT CANTON

Mrs. Essie Earll Yantis passed yesterday morning at her home, Hillside road, this village.

She was born June 29, 1876. Surviving are a sister, Dorothy Earll, DeLand, Fla., three grandchildren, Marilyn Buys of Richland, Wash., Norman Buys of New York City, and Janice Buys of Canton.

A memorial service will be held Wednesday afternoon at 2:30 at the Universalist church, Canton, the Rev. Edna P. Bruner, pastor, officiating.

It is requested that flowers be omitted. Contributions for the Clara Barton Camp for diabetic children, may be made.

Burial will be made in Evergreen cemetery.

Commercial Advertiser, Canton NY, Tue. 18 Apr 1950

MRS. ARNOLD YANTIS

The death of Mrs. Effie [Essie] Earl Yantis in her eighty-second year occurred in her home in Canton on April 17. She was born in Mottville and in her youth attended the Clinton Liberal Institute at Fort Plain and then Cornell University. She was married first to Mark Slingerland, professor of entomology at Cornell University. His death occurred in 1912. Later she was married to the Rev. Arnold Yantis, whose death occurred in 1928. She is survived by a daughter, Mrs. John L. Buys of Canton.

The Rev. Edna P. Bruner conducted the funeral service in the Universalist Church on April 19. At the request of Mrs. Yantis, friends were asked to omit flowers and instead to make contributions to the Clara Barton Camp for Diabetic Girls.

Empire State Universalist, Cortland NY, June 1950