

[Yerdon, Vina Barker]

MRS. YERDON, 84, DIES AT FT. PLAIN

FORT PLAIN, Nov. 27 (Special)—Mrs. Vina B. Yerdon, 84, widow of the late William Yerdon, Fort Plain manufacturer, died at her home at 10 River street this afternoon after a lingering illness.

Funeral services will be held from the home Monday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock. Rev. Gustave Ulrich, pastor of the Fort Plain Universalist Church, of which Mrs. Yerdon was a member, will officiate, assisted by Rev. Stannard B. Butler of Utica, former pastor here.

Mrs. Yerdon was born March 26, 1852, in Cramahe, Ontario, Canada, the daughter of John and Mary Wells Barker. She came to Fort Plain as a young girl.

Surviving are a daughter, Miss Lucille Yerdon, of Fort Plain; a son, Leland B. Yerdon, of Fort Plain; a brother, John Barker, of Fort Plain, and a sister, Miss Alice M. Barker, of Schenectady.

Schenectady Gazette, Schenectady NY, Fri. 27 Nov 1936

Transcribed on 26 Dec 2009 by Karen E. Dau of Rochester, NY