

[Youker, Florence Vedder]

Oppenheim Woman Dies at Age of 85; Born in Ephratah

Mrs. Florence L. Youker, 85, of the Town of Oppenheim, widow of Willard J. Youker, passed away early this morning in the Little Falls Hospital, where she had been a patient three days.

She was born in the Town of Ephratah, Jan. 3, 1868, daughter of Horatio and Marion (Maine) Veeder [sic]. Her husband died several years ago.

Mrs. Youker was a member of the Universalist Church.

The survivors are two sons, Roy H. and Fay A. Youker, Town of Oppenheim; one brother, Frank A. Vedder, Schenectady; one sister, Mrs. M. V. Billington, Denver, Col.; 18 grandchildren, 11 great grandchildren, and one great-great grandchild, also nephews and nieces.

The funeral will be held Monday at 2 p.m. at the home. The Rev. C. [Clinton] A. Moulton, D.D., retired [Universalist] clergyman, will officiate, and burial will be made at Ingham's Mills.
