Lewis G. Young

Van Hornesville lost one of its oldest and most highly esteemed residents in the death of Lewis G. Young, whose death occurred Thursday morning of last week at Utica. The remains were brought to his home in that village, where the funeral services were held Saturday afternoon at 2 p.m., conducted by Leroy Y. Brandow, undertaker of Fort Plain. The Rev. Charles Kramer [Universalist] of Cooperstown officiated. Besides his wife [Lydia], who survives, he leaves a son, John L. Young, and one daughter, Mrs. Ida Wiles, and a number of grandchildren.—Our Van Hornesville Reporter.
