

[Zimmerman, Hazel Farmer]

MRS. EARL W. ZIMMERMAN

Fort Plain—Mrs. Earl W. Zimmerman, 57, died Feb. 4, 1941, in her home in Syracuse.

Mrs. Zimmerman was born in Nelliston, the daughter of the Rev. Thomas J. and Minerva Farmer, and lived here until about 30 years ago.

The survivors are her husband; a son, William Zimmerman, U.S. Army engineer; a daughter, Mrs. Thomas Nickerson, Cambridge, Mass.; a sister, Mrs. O. D. Tisdale, Ottumwa, Ia.; a brother, the Rev. Thomas J. Farmer, Minneapolis.

Funeral services will be conducted in Syracuse at 10 a.m. today and committal service will be in the Catherine Nellis Memorial Chapel, Fort Plain, at 2 p.m. Interment will be in the Fort Plain Cemetery in the spring.

Daily Press, Utica NY, Fri. 7 Feb 1941

MRS. EARL W. ZIMMERMAN

Mrs. Hazel Farmer Zimmerman died at her home in Syracuse on February 4, after more than a year of failing health. Her death occurred four days after the marriage of her son, William F. Zimmerman to Miss Eleanor L. Kinsman. Mrs. Zimmerman was born at Nelliston, a village near Fort Plain. Following her marriage to Mr. Zimmerman, a native of Fort Plain, they made their home in Syracuse. Mrs. Zimmerman is a past president of the Genetaska Club of Syracuse and one of the founders of the Bellevue Mothers' Club. She was always prominent in the activities of the Betts Memorial Universalist Church, Syracuse.

Empire State Universalist, Cortland NY, February 1941