

[Zimmerman, Raymond J.]

Dolgeville
Zimmerman Dies at 58 In Hospital

Raymond J. Zimmerman, 58, of 11 Schuyler Street, died early Friday night at the Little Falls hospital where he had been a patient for one week. He was born Sept. 15, 1906 in Salisbury Center, the son of Jacob and Myrtle Jacobson Zimmerman. On July 1, 1932 he was united in marriage at the Universalist parsonage here to Marie Darling.

Mr. Zimmerman was employed in the payroll department of the H.P. Snyder Mfg. Co. of Little Falls. He was a past master of Dolgeville Masonic Lodge, a member of the Dolgeville Universalist Church and a member of the board of trustees of the Village of Dolgeville, to which office he was first elected in 1956. He had been active in village affairs since that time.

Surviving are his wife; one daughter, Linda, a teacher in the Van Buren school at Baldwinsville; one brother, Claude, Dolgeville; two sisters, Mrs. Otto (Hazel) Wagner and Mrs. John (Evelyn) Ashe, both of Little Falls; three nephews and one niece.

The Leader-Herald, Gloversville NY, Tue. 8 Dec 1964

Transcribed on 24 Aug 2011 by Karen E. Dau of Rochester, NY