

[Zimmerman, William]

William Zimmerman

William Zimmerman, of Minden, a member of the pioneer Zimmerman family, some of whom were the first settlers of St. Johnsville, died at his residence in the Dutchtown neighborhood Tuesday, at the advanced age of 82. He was twice married, his first wife, Mary, daughter of Thomas I. Mesick of Danube, dying in 1872. His second wife, who was Cornelia, also a daughter of Mr. Mesick, survives, as does one son, Romaine Zimmerman, and one brother, Jacob Zimmerman, both of Minden. Theologically he was an adherent of the Universalist tenets and politically his affiliations were Democratic. The funeral will be held at his late residence Friday, the interment being at Minden.
