

[Zoller, Solomon]

South Columbia

Solomon Zoller, for many years a resident of Frankfort, died at the home of his son, Frank Zoller, Saturday morning, April 16th, aged almost 78 years. His funeral was attended at his late home Monday at 12 M. Notwithstanding the fearful condition of the roads and the inclemency of the weather, there was a large gathering of sympathizing friends. Rev. S. R. [Samuel Roland] Ward [Universalist] of Richfield Springs solemnized the services and his remarks were logical and practical, abounding in encouragement and valuable suggestions.
