SOLOMON ZOLLER DEAD
Long Resident of Minden—

The death of Solomon Zoller, a life-long resident of the town of Minden, and one of the town's leading farmers, occurred at his home in Hallsville at 3 o'clock this morning after an illness that had confined him to his bed but [only] a few days. The deceased was the last member of the family of the late John Zoller. He had been in rather feeble health for a year. The deceased was known as an upright, progressive, kind-hearted man and was esteemed by all who knew him. He was a Democrat and had held numerous town offices. He is survived by one son Isaac, who resides upon the old homestead, and two grandchildren. The funeral will be held from his late home Saturday at 1 o'clock. The Rev. L. [Louis] J. Richards [of the Universalist Church] will officiate. Mr. Zoller was 82 years of age.
