

[Zoller, William]

FORT PLAIN

FORT PLAIN, April 8.—The funeral of Dr. William Zoller was held Friday afternoon from his late home, Rev. [Frank] Hokerk, [Universalist] of Gloversville, officiating. During the services the business places were closed. Dr. Zoller came to this village many years ago from St. Lawrence county and while here had built up a large practice, which he was obliged to relinquish a few yeas ago on account of ill health. [On] Sunday night he was stricken with apoplexy [a stroke] and Wednesday morning passed away without regaining consciousness. Dr. Zoller was a Republican in politics and at one time was president of Fort Plain, and also held the position of health officer. The deceased is survived by his wife and a step-daughter, Mrs. Fenton G. Diefendorf, of this village, also two brothers and three sisters.
